Batch Processor

Configured Servoy Batch processors start automatically when the Servoy Application Server is started.

The Batch Processor can either execute business logic periodically by using the Scheduler plugin or can be triggered by an external process.