

Bean

Property Summary

Boolean	enabled The enable state of the component, default true.
String	location The x and y position of the component, in pixels, separated by a comma.
String	name The name of the component.
Boolean	visible The visible property of the component, default true.

Property Details

enabled

The enable state of the component, default true.

Returns

Boolean - enabled state

location

The x and y position of the component, in pixels, separated by a comma.

Returns

String

name

The name of the component. Through this name it can also accessed in methods.

Returns

String

visible

The visible property of the component, default true.

Returns

Boolean - visible property