Servoy Batch Processor

Servoy Batch Processor clients are clients that automatically start when the Servoy Application Server is launched. They run server-side, without a User Interface and perform logic, either periodically or when triggered by an external process.

Batch Processors run a solution, just like all other Servoy Clients. The solution can either be developed specifically for use as Batch Processor or it can be a solution that is also used with other Servoy Clients.